hereby constitutes and appoints "ADVANCE CUSTOMS BROKER & LOGISTICS, INC", its officers & duly authorized employees, as a true and lawful agent and attorney of the grantor named above for and in the name, place, and stead of said grantor from this date and in all Customs District(s) and in no other name to make, endorse, sign, declare, or swear to any Customs entry, withdrawal, declaration, certificate, bill of lading, carnet or other documents required by law or regulation in connection with the importation, transportation, or exportation of any merchandise shipped or consigned by or to said grantor, to perform any act or condition which may be required by law or regulation in connection with such merchandise; to receive any merchandise deliverable to said grantor.

To make endorsements on bills of lading, conferring authority to make entry and collect drawback, and to make, sign, declare, or swear to any statement, supplemental statement, schedule, supplemental schedule, certificate of delivery, certificate of manufacture, certificate of manufacture and delivery, abstract of manufacturing records, declaration of proprietor or drawback entry, declaration of exporter on drawback entry, or any other affidavit or document which may be required by law or regulation for drawback purposes, regardless of whether such bill of lading, sworn statement, schedule, certificate, abstract, declaration, or other affidavit or document is intended for filing in said district or in any other customs district.

To sign, seal, and deliver for and as the act of said grantor any bond required by law or regulation in connection with the entry or withdrawal of imported merchandise or merchandise exported with or without benefit of drawback, or in connection with the entry, clearance, lading, unloading or navigation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor, and in any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under applicable laws and regulations, the consignee's and owner's declarations provided for in section 485, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended or affidavits in connection with the entry of merchandise.

To sign and swear to any document and to perform any act that may be necessary or required by law or regulation in connection with the entering, clearing, lading, unloading, or operation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor.

To authorize other Customs Brokers to act as grantor's agent; to receive, endorse and collect checks issued for Customs duty refunds in grantor's name drawn on the Treasurer of the United States, if the grantor is a nonresident of the United States, to accept service of process on behalf of the grantor.

And generally to transact customs business, including marking, signing, and filing of protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the premises as fully as said grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents: the foregoing power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until the notice of revocation in writing is duly given to and received by the grantee.

If the donor of this power or attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect after the expiration of 2 years from the date of its execution. If the donor of this power of attorney is a Limited Liability Company, the signatory certifies the he/she has full authority to execute this power of attorney on behalf of the grantor.

Per 19 CFR Ch.111.29 (b) (1) CFR 19 If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for customs charges (duties, taxes, or other debts owed U.S. Customs) in the event charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "U.S. Customs Service" which can be delivered to Customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks

Per 19 CFR Ch.111.36©(2)(i) This power of attorney waives the requirement for Advance Customs Broker & Logistics Inc. to transmit directly to the importer a true copy of brokerage charges if the fees and charges are to be collected by or through a forwarder.

In the execution of this document, it is understood that Advance Customs broker & Logistics, Inc, limit their liability to the extent provided for under law and in accordance with Advance Customs broker & Logistics, Inc, Terms and Conditions of Service; a written copy which grantor hereby acknowledges having received.

If the corporation has no corporate seal, the fact shall be stated, in which case a scroll or adhesive shall appear in the appropriate, designated place. U.S. Customs and Border Protection powers of attorney of residents (including resident corporations) shall be without power of substitution except for the purpose of executing shipper's export declaration. However, a power of attorney executed in favor of a licensed customhouse broker may specify that the power of attorney is granted to the customhouse broker to act through any of its licensed officers or any employee specifically authorized to act for such customhouse broker by power of attorney. NOTE: The corporate seal may be omitted. CBP does not require completion of a certification. The grantor has the option of executing the certification or omitting it.

ADVANCE CUSTOMS BROKER & LOGISTICS, INC TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

(Based on the model terms and conditions of service as promulgated by the National Customs Brokers and Forwarders Association of America, Inc.)

These Terms and Conditions of Service constitute a legally binding contract between the "Company" and the "Customer" governing the provision of customs brokerage and related services by the Company to the Customer. In the event the Company renders any other services to Customer, the Terms and Conditions of Service as set forth for such other service(s) shall govern those services. The most current Terms and Conditions of Service and the controlling version of the SEKO Customs Brokerage, Inc. Terms and Conditions of Service are published at www.sekologistics.com and are subject to change by Company, without prior notice.

1. Definitions.

- a. "Company" shall mean ADVANCE CUSTOMS BROKER & LOGISTICS, INC., its subsidiaries, related companies, agents and/or representatives.
- b. "Customer" shall mean the person for which the Company is rendering service, as well as its agents and/or representatives, including, but not limited to, shippers, importers, exporters, carriers, secured parties, warehousemen, buyers and/or sellers, shipper's agents, insurers and underwriters, break-bulk agents, consignees, etc. It is the responsibility of the Customer to provide notice and copy(s) of these Terms and Conditions of Service to all such agents or representatives.
- c. "Documentation" shall mean all information received directly or indirectly from Customer, whether in paper or electronic form.
- d. "Ocean Transportation Intermediaries" ("OTI") shall include an "ocean freight forwarder" and a "non-vessel operating carrier."
- e. "Third parties" shall include, but not be limited to, the following: "carriers, truckmen, cartmen, lightermen, forwarders, OTIs, customs brokers, agents, warehousemen and others which the goods are entrusted for transportation, cartage, handling and/or delivery and/or storage or otherwise."

2. Company as Agent. The Company acts as the "agent" of the Customer for the purpose of performing duties in connection with the entry and release of goods, post entry services, the filing of security documentation on behalf of the Customer and other dealings with Government Agencies. As to all other services, Company acts as an independent contractor. Customer agrees that the version of these Terms and Conditions of Service in effect at the time of tender will apply to services provided by the Company. Except to the extent of any written agreement between Company and Customer, these Terms and Conditions of Service supersede any claimed, alleged or asserted oral agreement, promise, representation, or understanding between or among the parties with respect to the customs brokerage services provided by Company.

3. Limitation of Actions. Unless subject to a specific statute or international convention, all claims against the Company for a potential or actual loss, must be made in writing and received by the Company within ninety (90) days of the event giving rise to claim. Customer's failure to give the Company timely notice shall be a complete defense to any suit or action commenced by Customer. Claims may not be deducted from charges and no claim will be considered until all fees due hereunder have been paid in full. In the event that Company pays a claim, Company shall be entitled to possession of the portion of the shipment for which claim was made as salvage, if applicable. The failure to provide the salvage shall be a bar to recovery of any claim.

a. All suits against Company must be filed and properly served on Company as follows:

i. For claims arising out of ocean transportation, within one (1) year from the date of the loss, however for shipments subject to the U.S. Carriage of Goods by Sea Act, such time period shall be nine (9) months;

ii. For claims arising out of air transportation, within two (2) years from the date of the loss;

iii. For claims arising out of the preparation and/or submission of an import entry(s), within seventy-five (75) days from the date of liquidation of the entry(s);

iv. For claims arising out of the preparation and/or submission of an importer security filing, within one (1) year from the date of loss; and

v. For any and all other claims of any other type within two (2) years from the date of the loss or damage.

4. No Liability for the Selection or Services of Third Parties and/or Routes. Unless services are performed by persons or firms engaged pursuant to express written instructions from the Customer, Company shall use reasonable care in its selection of third parties, or in selecting the means, route and procedure to be followed in the handling, transportation, clearance and delivery of the shipment; advice by the Company that a particular person or firm has been selected to render services with respect to the goods, shall not be construed to mean that the Company warrants or represents that such person or firm will render such services nor does Company assume responsibility or liability for any action(s) and/or inaction(s) of such third parties and/or its agents, and shall not be liable for any delay or loss of any kind, which occurs while a shipment is in the custody or control of a third party or the agent of a third party. All claims in connection with the act of a third party shall be brought solely against such party and/or its agents. In connection with any such claim, the Company shall reasonably cooperate with the Customer, which shall be liable for any charges or costs incurred by the Company.

5. Quotations Not Binding. Quotations as to fees, rates of duty, freight charges, insurance premiums or other charges given by the Company to the Customer are for informational purposes only and are subject to change without notice. No quotation shall be binding upon the Company unless the Company in writing agrees to undertake the handling or transportation of the shipment at a specific rate or amount set forth in the quotation and payment arrangements are agreed to between the Company and the Customer.

6. Reliance On Information Furnished.

a. Customer acknowledges that it is required to review all documents and declarations prepared by Company and/or filed by Company on Customer's behalf with U.S. Customs and Border Protection, other Government Agencies and/or third parties, and will immediately advise the Company of any errors, discrepancies, incorrect statements or classifications, or omissions on any declaration or other submission filed on Customer's behalf.

b. In preparing and submitting customs entries, export declarations, applications, security filings, documentation and/or required data, the Company relies on the correctness of all documentation, whether in written or electronic format, and all information furnished by Customer, including but not limited to tariff classification and information relating thereto. Customer shall use reasonable care to ensure the correctness of all such documentation and information and shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all claims, liability or losses, including but not limited to attorney's fees, suffered by reason of the Customer's failure to disclose documentation or information, or any incorrect, incomplete or false statement by the Customer or its agent, representative or contractor upon which the Company reasonably relied. The Customer agrees that the Customer has an affirmative non-delegable duty to disclose any and all documentation and information required to import, export or enter the goods.

7. Declaring Higher Value to Third Parties. Third parties to whom the goods are entrusted may limit liability for loss or damage; the Company will request excess valuation coverage only upon specific written instructions from the Customer, which must agree to pay any charges therefore; in the absence of written instructions or the refusal of the third party to agree to a higher declared value, at Company's discretion, the goods may be tendered to the third party, subject to the terms of the third party's limitations of liability and/or terms and conditions of service.
8. Insurance. Unless requested to do so in sufficient time prior to shipment from point of origin, and confirmed to Customer in writing, Company is under no obligation to procure insurance on Customer's behalf. The Company does not undertake or warrant that such insurance can or will be placed. In the event that Customer requests insurance from Company, all insurance placed will be governed by the certificate or applicable policy issued, and will only be effective upon acceptance by the insurance company selected by the Company. In all cases, Customer shall pay all premiums and costs in connection with procuring requested insurance. If for any reason the goods are held in warehouse, or elsewhere, the goods will not be covered by insurance, unless the Customer specifically requests such coverage in writing, and in advance, and Company confirms in writing that such coverage has been obtained.
9. Disclaimers: Limitations of Liability
- a. Except as specifically set forth herein, Company makes no express or implied warranties in connection with its services.
- b. Subject to (d) below, Customer agrees that in connection with any and all services performed by the Company, the Company shall only be liable for its negligent acts, which are the direct and proximate cause of injury to Customer, including loss or damage to Customer's goods, and the Company shall in no event be liable for the acts of third parties.
- c. In connection with all services performed by the Company, Customer may obtain additional liability coverage, up to the actual or declared value of the shipment or transaction, by requesting such coverage and agreeing to make payment therefore, which request must be confirmed in writing by the Company prior to rendering services for the covered transaction(s).
- d. In the absence of additional coverage under (c) above, the Company's liability shall be limited to the following:
- i. Where the claim arises from activities other than those relating to customs business, $50.00 per shipment or transaction.
- ii. Where the claim arises from activities relating to "Customs business," including importer security filing services or other filings, activities, shipments, or transactions, liability shall be limited to $50.00 per entry or the amount of brokerage fees paid to Company for the entry, whichever is less.
- e. In no event shall Company be liable or responsible for (i) consequential, indirect, incidental, statutory or punitive damages even if it has been put on notice of the possibility of such damages, or for (ii) the acts of third parties.
10. Advancing Money. All charges including but not limited to duties and taxes must be paid by Customer within ten (10) working days from the date of invoice for such fees, regardless of other terms that may have been agreed up for other invoiced services. The Company will not advance funds for payment of duties or taxes.
11. Indemnification/Hold Harmless. The Customer agrees to indemnify, and hold the Company harmless from any claims and/or liability, fines, penalties and/or attorneys' fees (regardless of whether or not litigation is filed) arising from the importation or exportation of Customer's merchandise, any/or any conduct of the Customer, including but not limited to the inaccuracy of entry, export or security data supplied by Customer or its agent or representative, which violates any applicable laws, and further agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless against any and all liability, loss, damages, costs, claims, penalties, fines and/or expenses, including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees (regardless of whether litigation is filed), which the Company may hereafter incur, suffer or be required to pay by reason of such claims.
12. C.O.D. or Cash Collect Shipments. Company shall use reasonable care regarding written instructions relating to "Cash/Collect" or "Deliver (C.O.D.)" shipments, bank drafts, cashier's and/or certified checks, letter(s) of credit and other similar payment documents and/or instructions regarding collection of monies but shall have no liability if the bank or consignee refuses to pay for the shipment. All payment documents tendered in satisfaction of C.O.D. shipments will be accepted based solely on Customer's accepting all risks related thereto, including without limitation, Customer's responsibility for risk of non-payment, insufficient funds, and forgery.
13. No Duty To Maintain Records For Customer. Customer acknowledges that pursuant to Sections 508 and 509 of the Traffic Act, as amended, (19 USC 1508 and 1509) it has the duty and is solely liable for maintaining all records required under the Customs and/or other Laws and Regulations of the United States. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, the Company shall only keep such records that it is required to maintain by Statute(s) and/or Regulation(s), but not act as a "record keeper" or "record keeping agent" for Customer.
14. Right to Inspect Property. All shipments are subject to inspection by Company. Company is not obligated to perform such inspection except as mandated by law. Company reserves the right to unilaterally reject a shipment it deems unfit for transport after inspection.
15. General Lien. Company shall have a general lien on any and all property (and documents related thereto) within its care, custody and control for all charges and expenses advanced by Company, including any charges due for prior unrelated shipments, invoices or services performed by Company. Company may refuse to surrender possession of the goods until all such charges are paid in full. If such amounts remain unpaid for 30 days after Company's demand for payment, Company may sell such property at public auction or private sale. The proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the amounts owed. Any surplus shall be paid to the rightful party and the Customer shall remain responsible for any deficiency.
16. Obtaining Binding Rulings, Filing Protests, etc. Unless requested by Customer in writing and agreed to by Company in writing, Company shall be under no obligation to undertake pre or post release actions, including, but not limited to, obtaining binding rulings, advising of liquidations, filing of petition(s) and/or protests, etc.
17. Preparation and Issuance of Bills of Lading. Where Company prepares and/or issues a bill of lading, Company shall be under no obligation to specify thereon the number of pieces, packages, and/or cartons, etc., unless specifically requested to do so in writing by Customer or its agent and Customer agrees to pay for same. Company shall rely upon and use the cargo weight supplied by Customer.
18. No Modification or Amendment Unless Written. These Terms and Conditions of Service may only be modified, altered or amended in writing signed by both Customer and Company; any attempt to unilaterally modify, alter or amend same shall be null and void.

19. Compensation of Company. The compensation of the Company for its services shall be included with and is in addition to the rates and charges of all carriers and other agencies selected by the Company to transport and deal with the goods and such compensation shall be exclusive of any brokerage, commissions, dividends, or other revenue received by the Company from carriers, insurers, and others in connection with the shipment. On ocean exports, upon request, the Company shall provide a detailed breakout of the components of all charges assessed and a true copy of each pertinent document relating to these charges. In any referral for collection or action against the Customer for monies due the Company, upon recovery by the Company, the Customer shall pay the expenses of collection and/or litigation, including reasonable attorney fees and a late payment fee of 1.5% per month, or the highest rate permitted by applicable law.

20. Force Majeure. Company shall not be liable for losses, damages, delays, wrongful or missed deliveries or nonperformance, in whole or in part, of its responsibilities under the Agreement, resulting from circumstances beyond the control of either Company or its subcontractors, including but not limited to: (i) acts of God, including flood, earthquake, storm, hurricane, power failure or other natural disaster; (ii) war, hijacking, robbery, theft or terrorist activities; (iii) incidents or deteriorations to means of transportation, (iv) embargoes, breaches of contract or omissions by Customer, Shipper, Consignee or anyone else who may have an interest in the shipment (viii) acts by any government or any agency or subdivision thereof, including denial or cancellation of any import/export or other necessary license; or (ix) strikes, lockouts or other labor conflicts.

21. Severability; Waiver. In the event any Paragraph(s) and/or portion(s) hereof is found to be invalid and/or unenforceable, then in such event the remainder hereof shall remain in full force and effect. Company's decisions to waive any provision herein, either by conduct or otherwise, shall not be deemed to be a further or continuing waiver of such provision or to otherwise waive or invalidate any other provision herein.

22. Notices. All notices to the Company shall be provided by certified U.S. mail and shall be effective upon receipt by the Company's address:

23. Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue. These Terms and Conditions of Service and the relationship of the parties shall be construed according to the laws of the State of Illinois, without giving consideration to principles of conflict of law.

Customer and Company:

- a. Irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of any federal or state court located in Cook County, Illinois;
- b. Agree that any action relating to the services performed by Company, shall only be brought in said courts;
- c. Consent to the exercise of in personal jurisdiction by said courts over it; and
- d. Further agree that any action to enforce a judgment may be instituted in any jurisdiction.
